

Unit 1 Human Rights

IV The Road to Repression Overview of Argentine History from 1930 to 1983

Part C: Born in Blood and Fire: A Concise History of Latin America, John Chasteen, Chapter 9 “Reaction.” How did the Cuban Revolution, the Cold War, and Marxist ideology shape events in the second half of the 20th century in Latin America?

All students will read the introduction to “Reaction” pages 285-286 and complete the organizer. Note the most important people, places, events, concepts, relationships and ideologies in the reading.

Read Introduction (285-286 finish the reading after –might not think that radical university students spoke for them)

Personal Reaction

Next, students will be divided into six groups. Each group will be responsible for reading and synthesizing the information in one of the following sections of the chapter:

- National Security Doctrine (286-290)
- Military Rule (290 to 294 end of 1st paragraph ending... the military was finally ready to bow out)
- Military Rule (294 starting with The legacy of military rule..... to 297)
- Dictatorship Almost Everywhere (297-302)
- The Last Cold War Battles: Central America (302-308 ending with Sandinista Barricada and the anti- Sandinista Prensa)
- The Last Cold War Battles: Central America (308 starting with The uprising against Samoza ...312)

What people, places, and events do you think are most important? What concepts, ideologies, relationships are most important? What is the impact of the events on history? What quotes stand out?
