

Activity 1: Prehispanic Foods in Latin America and European Influence Name: _____

Watch the video: <https://youtu.be/xbYPZ816UTk>

Answer the following questions:

- 1) Why is chicken pepian referred to as “patrimony of a nation?”

- 2) How do corn and chiles exemplify the modern use of pre-Hispanic foods in Latin America?

- 3) How do people in Latin American countries promote pre-Hispanic food culture even though many of these recipes have been lost over time?

- 4) Why was the introduction of coffee to Latin America in Colonial times important? What did Indigenous people use it for and how is it used today?

5) In general, how do people in Latin American countries today use foods introduced to the New World during the Columbian Exchange while still honoring pre-Hispanic food tradition?

6) What does corn represent when referring to times of Spanish/European invasion?

7) How did pre-Hispanic Latin American foods benefit Europe?
